

Monitoring Policy of The Indian Institution of Valuers (IIV - RVO)

Monitoring Policy

Purpose of the policy

This policy sets out the IIV-RVO's approach to monitoring members and students, the responsibilities of officials with respect to that monitoring.

Core principles

- IIV-RVO should have a clear idea of the benefits that monitoring will bring and must be able to justify these against any adverse impact on members, staff or students
- Members, Staff and students need to be made aware of the nature, extent and reasons for any monitoring which is likely to take place
- Members, Staff and students are expected to abide by the current policies and procedures in place and take responsibility for their own conduct
- Specific monitoring may be carried out in line with statutory requirements laid by IBBI.

What will be monitored?

- Registration process
- Studies
- Professional Development
- Statutory Compliances
- Financial transparency

What will not be monitored?

- Statutory Audit

(The above monitoring policy have the scope improve further)
